

Joop Berding (forthcoming, November 2020), Janusz Korczak. Educating for Justice.
Publisher: Springer Nature, series Briefs ‘Key Thinkers in Education’

Table of contents

Foreword, acknowledgments and dedication

Introduction

1 How to love a child

2 Analogies

3 The chapters

References

1 The ethos: Living with and for children

1.1 1878: From Henryk to Janusz

1.2 1904: What it means to be an educator

1.3 1912: Living together

1.4 1942 (To) the bitter end – and beyond

1.5 Conclusion

References

2 The basis: Respect for the child

2.1 ‘A child’s right to respect’

2.2 Three basic children’s rights

2.3 Conclusion

References

3 The means: Participative education

3.1 The term ‘participation’

3.2 From principles to action

3.3 Participation – at all costs?

3.4 Conclusion

References

4 The core: Doing justice

4.1 Striving for justice

4.2 The book of law

4.3 The ‘republican’ in Korczak

4.4 Conclusion

References

5 Today: Living together in a ‘republican’ fashion

5.1 A humanistic, universal educator

5.2 The reconstruction of institutions

5.3 Conclusion

References

Afterword : Educating for justice

References

Appendix

About the author